THE FACES and the look has changed but the area continues to be one of the nicest places to live. Here's one last look at some of the faces that have shaped the area. (Above) Wilmer Swank and his horse Kismit travel a bit in 1906. (Left) Nina Belding Payne is shown here in the 1930s. (Upper right) The Payne family is shown here by their Grass Valley home in 1889. (Lower right) The Cowan family ran the Camas Cab Service in 1922.
